DIRECTIONS TO THE MURRUMBATEMAN VENUE

- From Canberra take the Barton Highway towards Yass. At the Murrumbateman Caltex Service Station zero your trip meter and continue towards Yass for approximately 5.6 kilometres.
- Turn right at Gounyan Road. The turn-off is on the new section of highway – there is a turning lane but please take care with oncoming vehicles travelling at 100kph.
- The roads from the Barton Highway to Mt. Gounyan Station have been designated as a 'quiet zone' where speed and engine revs must be kept to a minimum. There will be two-way traffic so take care.
- Follow Gounyan Road for approximately 3.3 kilometres, noting the speed limit is strictly 60kph. Slow down over the cattle grids.
- At the end of the straight section of road, turn left into Vivian Lane. A grey stone and brick house is directly behind the intersection. Continue for approximately 600 metres to the end of this road.
- Turn right past the 'Mt. Gounyan Station' sign, through the gate and over the cattle grid. The farm is approximately 3 kilometres from Vivian Lane. All gates must be opened and closed as you move through.
- Follow the road as it winds around the paddocks and over the grids and through two more gates. This is a private road and there may be sheep and cattle grazing on or near road so be alert.
- The roads to the venue are gravel with uneven sections and cattle grids, and due to the risk of damage are not suitable for low clearance vehicles. Normal height road cars and 4wd vehicles will have no problems.
- Car trailers will fit comfortably through each gate, however take care when moving through these to avoid damage – take wide approaches where possible to move through the gates in a straight line.
- If you get lost please call Mat on 0422 960 013
